SUPPLEMENT to the MARYLAND GAZETTE,

THURSDAY, MARCH 13, 1788.

February 28, 1788. N the petition of John Haislope, son of Henry, of Charles county, to the chancellor, praying the benefit of the act of affembly entitled, An act respecting insolvent debtors, notice is hereby given to the creditors of the said petitioner, that the eighteenth day of April next, is appointed for a meeting of the said creditors, at the chancery office in the city of Annapolis, and that a trustee or trustees will be appointed on that day. on their behalf, according to the directons of the faid act; and it is ordered that this notice be published fix weeks in the Maryland Gazette.

Frek stes

nies at Mount Ver.

(on account of the

e feafon, and tw

om, for his care of

old) has increased

n, and not a jour

da high, most bean

king retembling

ed for different pur

for flow an heavy
ty and fpeightlines
lue of mules on a

hardiness and the

two guine is the fer

ence to the groom-

pas i before the jen

no accounts will b

will be provided

onvenience of those

r jennies, and wer

them, but they wi

pes, or accident.

RFAX, Overicer.

, March 9, 1711.

lington Meadow

and a half calb, at

the groom. The

e Eclipte, may ha

nts) for two games

clipfe will cover to

d horse, that is equ

icalth; his pedigi

RRISON, groom.

HIN,

d HORSE,

nd will cover mare

a cast, and file thi

tray, nearly hite

eft, mares and hori

age thiree think

RRISON, groom.

nories are for tale

vovember 2, 1787

negro man qua

a ark mulatto,

ough carpenter;

with him a variety

e and ve y carnen

ht hand. He had

figned by Wall

imfelf wherever

d pais it is likely

he was feen at A

went towards ba

pegro Bob. 10 1

or the subscient

Warned not tol

nry Hawkins,

ge's coun y, a m

hands high.

rec while 488

en rode.

BASED.

a finall distance a small distance where the bouless of the boules

IN PARNHAM

rancis-Stra

Bay charges,

REWAK

Horfe

description.

eed in the Island

SAMUEL HARVEY HOWARD. Teft. 2 Reg. Cur. Can.

March 1, 1788. N the petition of Jacob Gibson, sen. of Talbot county, to the chancellor, praying the benefit of the act of assembly, entitled, An act respecting insolvent debtors, notice is hereby given to the creditors of the said petitioner, that the 21st day of April next, is appointed for a meeting of the said creditors, at the chancery office in the city of Annapolis, and that a trustee or trustees will be appointed on that day. on their behalf, according to the directions of the faid act; and it is ordered that this notice be published six weeks in the Maryland Gazette.

Test. SAMUEL HARVEY HOWARD. Reg. Cur. Can.

March 3, 1788. N the petition of John Williams, of Frederick county, to the chancellor, praying the benefit of the act of assembly, entitled, An act respecting insolvent debtors, notice is hereby given to the creditors of the said petitioner, that the twenty-second day of April next, is appointed for a meeting of the said creditors, at the chancery office in the city of Annapolis, and that a trustee or trustees will be appointed on that day, on their behalf, according to the directions of the faid act; and it is ordered that this notice be published fix weeks in the Maryland Gazette.

Test. O SAMUEL HARVEY HOWARD, Reg. Cur. Can.

February 27, 1788. O N the petition of Edward Spurrier, of Anne-Arundel county, to the chancellor, praying the benefit of the act of assembly, entitled, An act respecting infolvent debtors, notice is hereby given to the creditors of the said petitioner, that the 18th day of April next, is appointed for a meeting of the said creditors, at the chancery office in the city of Annapolis, and that a trustee or trustees will be appointed on that day, on their behalf, according to the directions of the said act; and it is ordered that this notice be published fix weeks in the Maryland Gazette.

Test. SAMUEL HARVEY HOWARD, Reg. Cur. Can. The above application is made in consequence of a very heavy loss by fire.

February 11, 1788. N the petition of James Kent, of Queen Anne's conuty, to the chancellor, praying the benefit of the act of assembly, entitled, An act respecting insolvent debtors, notice is hereby given to the creditors of the said petitioner, that the 28th day of March next is appointed for a meeting of the said creditors at the chancery-office in the city of Annapolis, and that a trustee or trustees will be appointed on that day on their behalf, according to the directions of the faid act; and it is ordered that this notice be published fix weeks in the Maryland Gazette.

SAMUEL HARVEY HOWARD, Reg. Cur Can.

Frederick county, February 7, 1788. HE subscriber hereby gives notice, that he intends to petition to next March court, for a commission to mark and bound the following tract of land, agreeable to an act of assembly, entitled, An act for marking and bounding lands, &cc. his part of a tract of land, called the Meadow, and another track of land called Something, both tituate on the Meadow Branch, a branch of Great Pipe-creek.

MICHAEL PFOUTZ.

February 11, 1788. O N the petition of William Hopper, of Queen-Anne's county, to the chancellor, praying the benesit of the act of assembly, entitled, An act respecting insolvent debtors, notice is hereby given to the creditors of the said petitioner, that the 38th day of March next is appointed for a meeting of the faid creditors, at the chancery office in the city of Annapolis, and that a trustee or trustees will be appointed on that day, on their behalf, according to the directions of the said act; and it is ordered that this notice be published fix weeks in the Maryland Gazette.

Ter. SAMUEL HARVEY HOWARD, Reg. Cur. Can.

February 14, 1788. O N the application of the trustee and sundry of the creditors of George Sibbald, the tenth day of April next is limitted and appointed by the chancellor for the creditors of the faid George Sibbald to bring in and declare their respective claims to the said trustee. that the same may be on that day liquidated and adjusted. And the first day of May next is appointed for the sale of the goods assigned by the said George Sibbald to, and now in the possession of, the trustee; due notice hereof to be published in Mr. Green's and Mr Goddard's news-papers.

Test. SAMUEL HARVEY HOWARD. Reg. Cur. Can.

Frederick county, December 31, 1787. NTOTICE is hereby given, that the subscriber intends to make application to Frederick county court, in March next, for a commission to mark and bound a tract of land, called Locust Neck, lying in the county aforelaid. 3 FREDERICK KEEFER.

February 11, 1788. NTOTICE is hereby given, that I intend to apply to Kent county court to receive the benefit of the late insolvent act, after this notice is given six weeks in the Baltimore Journal and Maryland Gazette. WILLIAM BRADSHA.

Charles county, February 21, 1788. OTICE is hereby given to all the creditors of the subscriber, that being unable to discharge his debts, he intends to petition Charles county court, at April term next, and take the benefit of the act for the relief of infolvent deptors.

FRANCIS IGNATIUS STEWART.

February 12, 1788. NOTICE is hereby given, that I intend to apply to Calvert county court for a commission to ascertain and mark, under the late act, the bounds and lines of five tracts of land in said county, called Troster's Purchale, Robert's Chance, Little Land, Chalk Hills, and Letchworth's Chance. JAMES HEIGHE.

February 19, 1788. TOTICE is hereby given, that the subscriber, being unable to discharge his debts, means to apply to the justices of Prince-George's county court, for the benefit of the act respecting insolvent debtors. HUMPHREY BECKETT.

Annapolis, February 4, 1788. HE subscriber hereby gives notice to all her creditors, that being unable to discharge her debts, the intends to apply to the justices of Anne-Arundel county, at the ensuing March court, for the benefit of the act for the relief of insolvent debtors. MARY RANKEN.

Saint Mary's county, February 22, 1788. On Monday the 17th day of March next, will be fold, at public vendue, at the dwelling plantation of Mrs. Betty Anne Eden.

LL the personal estate of the late Townshend Eden, Esq; deceased, consisting of a number of likely negroes, stock, furniture, grain, &c. &c. A credit will be given for twelve months, on giving bond with good security; the sale to continue until all is

BETTY ANNE EDEN, administratrix. WALTER STONE, administrator.

voletororo

a both nations, purfe will inetter known to connect himself in power to leterests, has neod, to turn his hem his affectiwhich his mar success will re is reason to eafures which

: It and attachre unanimous ervent wishes n, who have the military s, permit me ertain for the length enjoy ower here to which I have ile who have e attention of e, and whose all nations. ntlemen, if I onstant care. and your ap-appears to seeding a mitlemen, with rom enjoying m his talents, which placed you. I will y the greatest s to whatever glory, and

e following

acknowledge ices which we istian majesty, ter ourselves. ty and regard the connexie, and to renenefits to the ving engageriles; and we ed with entire citly affured of sofhip and atexpressing the ity and value. we receive you cially as your the harmony t be lefs proerality, than your predeteem and re-

and a large ers of the ciand an elepurable the recter from the chevalier de la Luzerne, was lately read in the general affembly of this state:

I have received the act of the affembly of Pennsyl. vania, and the letter you have honoured me with, from which I learn that that state has condescended to give my name to one of its newly erected counties. It is impossible for me to explain the grateful sense I have of this distinguished favour. Having the advantage of a long residence in Pennsylvania, I have been witness to all the acts of patriotism and valour performed in that state, and which have so much contributed to the American independence.

I have had the further advantage of a personal knowledge of the different members of your governliauce formed for obtaining a glorious peace, after ment, and the opportunity of judging with what wifquarrel, so long as the French remain specta- efforts directed by the greatest wisdom, and sustain- dom, prudence and firmness, they have succeeded nor is there room to dread that Tippoo can ed with admirable constancy, must always be con- in establishing one of the best governments in the quarrel, he lummoned num belor ; this worthy magistrate being determined such offenders of the laws of God and man be punished to their full extent, asked Mr. If he swore like a gentleman, or a poor man?" hich he answering, "Like a gentleman, your the magistrate, and instantly insisted on £ 10, five thillings for every oath.

a of a letter from a gentleman at Madrass, to bis friend in Scotland.

venture to predict, that we will not interfere in over these numerous states, even disunited as formable to the common interests; and that it is a world.

Mr. St. John, a justice of the peace for the Written at Vertailles, the goth September, 1787. Your good friend and ally, LOUIS. (Signed) Count de Montmorin.

After which he addressed congress in a speech, of which the following is a translation:

Gentlemen of the Congress, THE relations of friendship and affection which subsist between the king my master and the United All is quietness in this penintula, so far as we are States, have been established on a basis which canfled; should Tippoo Saib become more serious not but daily acquire a new degree of solidity. It builties against any of the Mahratta states, I is satisfactory to be mutually convinced that an alis satisfactory to be mutually convinced that an al-

To the United States of North America.